buried in Sacraments. The family returned to Ills. by water crossing the isthmus, going up to St. Louis, then on the Ill. river to Lagrange, two miles from a daughter Marys home. The family brought all the gold dust it was possible to carry. The women had belts filled with gold coin, Mrs Osborn had $2000, in her belt.
Mr Osborn and older son took the gold dust on horseback to Philadelphia to the mint, & changed it for coin.
